

Going Back Home

There's nothing sadder than returning, responsive to a heart-felt yearning, to scenes we used to know; but lately to such scenes I wandered, and with an aching heart I pondered o'er things of long ago. I used to know a girl named Daisy, who was so smooth she drove me crazy; of her for years I'd dreamed; and always in my mental vision, angelic, beautiful, elysian, and bright with youth she seemed. And in my recent tour I found her with seven husky sons around her, and she was bent and gray, and worn from cooking hams and fishes, and washing everlasting dishes, and helping men pitch hay. And all the lads who with me gambled, and through the melon patches rambled, on by-gone starry nights, were staid, from all their toil and straining, and hobbled up and down complaining of aches and chigger bites. The town itself was there, unchanging; the river down its course was ranging by hoary elm and pine; the old stone church still reared its steeple, and in its shade were planted people who once were chums of mine.

ROAD AND WOOD TRAILS FOLLOWED BY HIKERS

Party of Fifty-Five Cover Six and a Half Miles Near Takoma Park and Silver Spring.

A combination of road and wood trails was followed for six and a half miles yesterday by a party of fifty-five wanderers, under the leadership of Walter W. Paige, C. M. Sterns and John Boyle, Jr. The "official" account follows:

"From the District line Eastern avenue was followed to the Baltimore and Ohio railway, thence by Chicago avenue to Takoma Park and over wood trails to the Silver Spring and Four Corners road. From the point where the road turns almost due north part of the crowd went by road and part through the woods to Sligo creek, the latter enjoying a glimpse of Sligo north of the road for a short distance, some of the tramp ground of the wanderers, but not followed for a long time.

"From the creek the road was followed for a short distance to an old wagon road through the woods, making a short cut to another section of the same road about a mile beyond, and from this point by road to Four Corners, where a stop was made for rest and water. From Four Corners a party returned direct to Silver Spring, the others proceeding in a westerly course to Wheaton, but leaving Wheaton road a half mile out and changing the course as contemplated by a new road to the street line, and the Forest Glen car line, two miles north of the District line.

"The evening, Miss Effie Koontz is to lead a stroll through sections of Potomac Park, leaving at 7:45 o'clock from 14th and E streets, west. Sunday next a visit will be paid Camp Good Will. The walk is to start at 3 o'clock from 14th and E streets, west. A brief stop at the camp, where a tent party will be held, and wanderers will be decorated by the club colors of blue, green and brown, and the walk will be resumed through some more or less familiar scenes of Rock Creek Park."

AUTOS BADLY NEEDED IN DOING RELIEF WORK

An Appeal Is Sent Out for Cars by the Citizens' Welfare Association.

An appeal for the use of automobiles is sent out by the Citizens' Welfare Association, organized to relieve needy families of District guardians. The investigating committee of the association, which actually works among the families, needs machines in order to make the daily rounds of cases. At present the women of the committee are seriously hampered in their work because they cannot cover much territory by means of street cars alone, and because a great deal of time is wasted walking to and from the lines and in waiting for cars. Any persons owning machines which may not be much in use are asked to communicate with the association headquarters, room 716 Dunsmuir building, or to telephone Main 2186.

A number of desperate cases have been before the attention of the association lately. Today one woman who has been with her husband in the District for six months, and who has been told by her husband that he will not pay her home if she does not leave, has been brought to the attention of the association. In another case a woman was left with several young children when her husband was forced to go with the guardsmen, and she has no means of support.

John Matland Carter, eighty, last survivor of the six men who stood on the first Lincoln campaign stand in Baltimore and prominent during the civil war, died at his home in that city.

EDWARD E. HIERLING DIES, 88 YEARS OLD

Former Civil War Veteran Succumbs After Six-Month Illness. Funeral Tomorrow.

Edward E. Hierling, one of the oldest residents of Washington, died at his home, 641 A street southeast, yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, aged eighty-eight years, after an illness of six months.

Services will be held at his late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment to be in Arlington cemetery.

Mr. Hierling was born in Saxony, Germany, in 1829, and came to the United States at the age of twenty. In 1857 he enlisted in the 9th United States Infantry as a musician, and was honorably discharged in 1862. He served two more enlistments in the army, and after his last discharge, in 1867, he entered the Marine Band. He was discharged from the band in 1875, and lived at 641 A street southeast. Three years ago he celebrated his golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. Hierling was a member of Lafayette Post No. 20, G. A. R., and of the Knights of Pythias. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. D. E. Shulters, seven grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

NEW VIEW OF WASHINGTON. Chamber of Commerce to Use Attractive Folder in Boosting City. The Chamber of Commerce is preparing to utilize in its convention-seeking activities an attractive folder containing a new bird's-eye view of Washington, just issued by the Washington Railway and Electric and Capital Traction companies. The folder was gotten up by the railway companies for free distribution to visitors to the capital, and is designed to be of practical value in pointing out the principal points of interest and how they may be reached with the greatest facility.

Several hundred copies have been placed at the disposal of the Chamber of Commerce, which will employ them extensively in "boosting Washington."

ALUMNI PLAN EXCURSION. Business High "Grads" to Go Down River August 6. Plans for the year were discussed by members of the executive committee of the Business High School Alumni Association at a recent meeting. All graduates are urged to send applications for membership to Miss Kilda Malcolm, 1810 Kenyon street northwest. The association is planning a number of midsummer outings, one of which is to be a moonlight trip on the steamer St. Johns August 6.

The appointment of the two following sailing committees was approved: School interests—William C. Sullivan, chairman; Charles A. Jones, Paul B. Cronin, Leon E. Cooper and William C. Ashford.

Finance—Robert C. Tracy, chairman; Charles A. Jones and Arthur C. Houghton, the latter to be auditor.

EXCURSION PIER LENGTHENED. Colonial Beach Wharf Now Accommodates Steamer St. Johns. A wharf building plant from this city has been at work for the past month on the excursion pier at Colonial Beach, rebuilding the structure which has been made strong to carry the crowds that pass over it during the summer months.

The head of the structure has been rebuilt. The walkway to the shore has had new piles and capes placed under it so that the entire structure is practically new.

The last of the work was completed Saturday. The pile driver and scows will return to this city early this week. The Colonial Beach excursion pier is one of the longest on the river. A long wharf has been made necessary to the steamer St. Johns.

The pile driver belonging to Portch & Jones, employed in building a fender to the draw of the Pennsylvania avenue bridge over the Eastern branch, has completed the work and has been brought back to the wharf of her owners, foot of 6th street southwest.

MASONS BEARING GIFTS VISIT CAMP GOOD WILL Bring Toys, Ice Cream, Cake, Fruit and Take Youngsters for Automobile Ride.

Once again the little children at Camp Good Will were made to feel that there is some good in humanity, when Worshipful Master James S. McCarthy and the members of the Washington-Centennial Lodge, No. 14, F. A. A. M., which maintained a tent at the camp, yesterday swooped down upon it in automobiles and afoot, laden with toys to play with, good things to eat and, the delight of the juvenile heart, an automobile ride to top it all off.

All this was to celebrate what was called "Washington-Centennial Lodge's Shower day." Its sole purpose, according to Worshipful Master McCarthy, was to give the children at the camp a "happy day."

Supplementing the donation of toys, small musical instruments, cake, fruit and other acceptable things to the youngsters, were 500 cones of ice cream, enough to go around several times. After the feasting, the youngsters were given a ride through Rock Creek Park. Before the Masons departed they left between $40 and $50 to help defray expenses of the camp.

POLICEMAN'S INDICTMENT NOLLE PROSS BY U. S.

Government Unable to Find Witness, Drops Case Against Warren E. Grimes.

The indictment returned last August against Warren E. Grimes, a member of the police force, for alleged compounding a felony, was nolle prossed today by United States Attorney Laskey. Grimes was charged with failing to notify superior officers of the existence of a gambling place of which he was said to have knowledge. His indictment grew out of the investigation by the United States attorney's office of the police department last summer.

Grimes was indicted jointly with Raymond O. Kleindienst, former precinct detective, but had been granted a separate trial by the court. His trial had been deferred by Justice Gould until today to give the government opportunity to locate a witness, Thomas Horan. When Assistant United States Attorney Laskey announced to Justice Gould that Horan had not been located the court declined to order a postponement.

Attorneys Arthur A. Birney and Chapman W. Fowler, for the accused, insisted on the right to a trial, saying the policeman had been given a suspension nearly a year and was entitled to a disposition of the case.

Nolle Pros Is Entered. Justice Gould agreed with counsel for the defense and told the United States attorney that he must either proceed to trial or drop the prosecution. Mr. Laskey then entered a nolle pros, and the case was closed.

Attorney T. Morris Wampler, representing Kleindienst, asked the court to direct a similar disposition of the charge against the former detective, or to set the case for trial. Justice Gould declined to adopt the suggestion, declaring that the criminal work of the court was to be closed today and the jury would not be further sequestered. "This is dependent upon future developments," he said.

BICYCLIST MAY LOSE LEG. Thigh Bone Broken When Boy Is Hit by Auto Truck. With his left thigh bone fractured, Walter Sornborger, fifteen years old, of 6308 9th street is in a serious condition at Emergency Hospital. Whether or not the boy's leg will have to be amputated, it was stated by the hospital, may be determined tonight.

The boy was riding a bicycle at 16th and Meridian streets yesterday afternoon when knocked from the wheel and run over by an auto truck operated by Albert Williams, colored, of 128 H street southwest.

The boy was taken to the hospital in the ambulance. The health of that neighborhood, it is claimed, is due to a revision in the plans. Work on the new market, however, they stated today, will begin at an early date.

The last appropriation act carried $125,000 for the new market, with a limited cost of $100,000.

The plan called for a cold storage plant, but the Commissioners decided that refrigeration of the individual stalls would be sufficient, and determined to eliminate the cold storage feature, at a saving to the District of $25,000.

They made a recommendation to this effect in their last estimates, but the Senate appropriations committee did not agree to the proposed elimination, and it is now probable that the original appropriation authorized for the cold storage plant will stand.

Plans for the improvement have been drawn and it is expected that work will begin shortly after the passage of the District appropriation act.

Destiny on Earth Made in Other Life. "Literally our destiny is as we ourselves create it," said Irving S. Cooper, national lecturer of Theosophical Society, last evening at 1216 H street northwest. "This is because we have lived on earth before," he continued. "The conditions of this present life are the result of cause and effect which we ourselves have set in motion."

"The Geography of the Unseen World" is to be the subject of Mr. Cooper's lecture next Sunday evening.

WASHINGTONIANS TO AID IN SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN

Mrs. Benton MacKaye and Mrs. Robert Baker Selected as Two of the Managers.

Mrs. Benton MacKaye and Mrs. Robert Baker of this city are to be among the twenty-four campaign managers for the national woman's party in the twelve western suffrage states during the approaching presidential campaign. Both are to attend the conference of the party to be held at Colorado Springs August 10, 11 and 12, where it is to be decided what action the party is to take. Although it has not been definitely stated, it is probable that Mrs. MacKaye is to work in Idaho with Miss Clara Rivers. These assignments are to be made at the conference. This announcement was made by Miss Alice Paul before she left last night for New York, where she is to confer with Mrs. O. H. Belmont in reference to the conference at Colorado Springs. These assignments are to be made at the conference. This announcement was made by Miss Alice Paul before she left last night for New York, where she is to confer with Mrs. O. H. Belmont in reference to the conference at Colorado Springs. These assignments are to be made at the conference.

Mrs. MacKaye said that the conference at Colorado Springs will be of historic value because it is to be the first time in the history of the world that women of the nation should organize as a national body to promote it. She was on the stump in a similar campaign two years ago in the state of Oregon, where she met with great success.

FISH DEALERS WANT NEW MARKET HURRIED. In Protest They Assert Delay Is Endangering Health of the Neighborhood.

Protest against further delay in the building of the new municipal fish market, at 11th and Water streets southwest, was filed with the District Commissioners today by dealers and property owners in that section.

Dilapidated condition of the fishhouses, with their lack of sewerage facilities, is causing a menace to the health of that neighborhood, it is claimed.

District officials explain the delay as due to a revision in the plans. Work on the new market, however, they stated today, will begin at an early date.

The last appropriation act carried $125,000 for the new market, with a limited cost of $100,000.

CENTRAL PLANT HELD BACK.

Work Stopped by Controversy Over Pile Driving Requirements. Pile driving for the foundations of the new central lighting and heating plant the government proposes to build at the foot of 14th street southwest is still at a standstill.

It has now been several weeks since a controversy arose between the contractor for the pile driving and the government inspectors over the manner of driving the piles. The question has been submitted to the Treasury Department officials, test piles driven to ascertain the depth at which they take up and whether further driving injures the piles.

No agreement has been reached. The matter is in process of adjustment. Driving of piles may be resumed some time this week. Meanwhile, the big pile driving machines stand idle and the place is deserted.

To Address Socialists' Meeting. Jeannette Gershanlag Glassberg, formerly of Washington, but now of New York, and Benjamin Glassberg, a teacher in the New York city public schools, are announced as the speakers at an open-air meeting to be held at 5 o'clock tonight at Pennsylvania avenue and 8th street northwest, under the auspices of the socialist party committee on education. Mrs. Glassberg will speak on the position of women after the war.

Emphasizes Patriotism in Address. Representative Walter M. Chandler of New York laid great stress upon patriotism in an address last evening at the Gospel Mission, on John Marshall Place. Vocal selections were given by the Foundry M. E. Church quartet and Mrs. Florence Wedderspoon Boe. A prayer was offered by Mrs. Ellis Stone, a foreign missionary. William L. Clark presided.
